

This is a most unusual, strange time!
No rehearsals, no set construction, no shows!!

Normally, we would be letting you know about our up-and-coming next production “Way Upstream” by Alan Ayckbourn which was scheduled to be performed in the first week of June. However, due to the Covid-19 situation, we are all “on hold” until such time as it’s considered safe to be able to put on public performances, and/or a time when people feel comfortable in attending theatres and village halls to see live theatre again.

We thought, however, that this was an opportune time for us to simply “keep in touch” with you all and to let you know what our plans are in the hope that it won’t be too long before we are able to tread the boards again.

In the meantime, please stay safe and well.

Down Memory Lane!

As we’re planning a musical for next year (2021), we thought you might like to see a few photos of our production of “Oklahoma!” of ten years earlier.

FUTURE PLANS

♦ 2nd to 5th December 2020

“Way Upstream” by Alan Ayckbourn.

Director: Helen Halliday

Note: this all depends upon whether rehearsals can start in September and the Dunn Village Hall is available for hire.

♦ 19th to 22nd May 2021

“The Sound of Music”

This wonderful musical will be directed by member Pete Bowers (who has directed large shows at The Pavilion, Hailsham) and it’s bound to be very popular.

Pete’s plan is as follows:

- 1. In July/August, to hold a Familiarisation Evening for all those who would like to take part.
- 2. Auditions to be held in September.
- 3. Some musical rehearsals to take place in October and November.
- 4. Full rehearsals to start in the middle of January.

Note: Apart from the show dates, we are unable, at the present time, to give firm dates for the other plans outlined above. However, we will let you know them as soon as we are able to do so.
