Director's Notes

Norman Robbins is regarded by many as the world's most prolific and successful pantomime writer and playwright who entertained audiences world-wide with his comedies and thrillers for over sixty years. Norman was born in Yorkshire in the mid Nineteen Thirties and made his professional debut in pantomime at the Hippodrome Theatre in 1965, with comedian Ken Dodd and was asked to return the following year as a "feed" to Morecambe & Wise. Over the next fifteen years he appeared with many other show business luminaries including Charlie Chester, Roy Hudd, Harry Worth, Brian Rix, Roy Barraclough, Jack Douglas, Jimmy Jewell, Hylda Baker, Wilfred Pickles, Irene Handl, Ronnie Barker, David Jason, Bernie Winters and several of the "Carry On" team, while on television he was seen in "Open all Hours", "Last of the Summer Wine", "For the love of Ada", "All Creatures Great and Small", "Survivors", "Get Some In", "Grange Hill", "Crossroads" etc., plus a host of Variety programmes, and worked in Summer Season plays around the country.

However throughout this period Norman continued to write plays and pantomimes in his spare time. The Late Mrs Early is a return to Norman Robbins' roots: although the characters and events are fictitious, the town of Castleford in West Yorkshire does exist. In the 1970s it was a small mining district and our playwright lived there for over twenty years of his life, giving him ample time to observe his neighbours.

Although the play is set in 1975, the characters Alice and Sam would have married in the mid-fifties and therefore we have created a set reminiscent of that time, as- like many other working class folk of that era- Alice Early would have made sure that her furniture and goods were made to last -along with her marriage - for life!

I have thoroughly enjoyed working with this talented group of actors and backstage crew and I cannot thank them enough for all the work they have put into this production. It has been a privilege to welcome and work with the newcomers to our acting team, as well as to enjoy the skills of our returning cast members.

But, most importantly, I would like to thank you, our audience, for supporting us. I hope you have a great evening and enjoy the show as much as we have enjoyed creating it!

And now, I'll "sling my hook", as Alice would say...

Pam Edmonds

The Angie Trew award

Each year at the AGM in October, the Angie Trew Award for "The Most Deserving Actor" is presented to the person who has given an outstanding performance in the preceding 12 months. It doesn't have to be a leading role, but something that has most impressed, amused or entertained our audiences. We have a panel of three regular audience members who make the decision for the Most Deserving Actor and the winner for 2023-2024 was Lizzie Hutcheson for her comedic performances and ability to engage her audience, in "Aladdin" and "Upham Hall". The panel also commended performances by Jilly Edmeads, Kirsty Coles, Isla Mayhew, Izzy Waterhouse and Clyde Young for his wonderful performance as Darling.

The Village Players also value our wonderful production teams and the Committee nominate the person who has given "The Most Valuable Input" into productions and the award went to Suzanne Toynton for both Lighting and Ticketing.

Forthcoming events

The next Café Theatre production by The Village Players will be in May 2025. The play is yet to be decided.

This will be performed here at the Dunn Village Hall.

Our thanks

The Village Players wish to thank everyone who has generously assisted with this production with special thanks to:

The County Group for their sponsorship and help in the preparation of the programme and other publicity materials.

Robert Barker of Quest Graphics for the design and artwork of our programmes, flyers and posters.

Mark Bostock for taking the cast photographs.

Mary Dick-Cleland for arranging and preparing the catering for each evening.
